Prices and returns

The price is cum-distribution. The price per unit differs from the application or redemption price, which takes into account the buy/sell spread. Fund returns are net of fees and assume reinvestment of distributions.

Indirect Cost Ratio (ICR)

The ICR is a measure of the actual fees and expenses incurred by the Class over the relevant period. The Fund expenses are a percentage of the Class' average daily value during the period. Class performance is shown after taking into account fees and expenses. The ICR should not be used as an indication of future fees and expenses.

Geographical, asset and currency allocation

This table highlights the Fund's exposure to regions, assets and currencies. It compares the Fund to the Benchmark, where relevant. The exposure to geographical regions may differ from the exposure to currencies due to Orbis' currency management. Exchange rate fluctuations may influence investment returns. Net current assets include cash and cash equivalents, unrealised gains/losses on forward currency contracts and accruals. Net equity is calculated by taking into account the exchange-traded derivatives used to reduce market exposure.

The country and currency classification for securities follows that of third-party providers for comparability purposes. Emerging Markets follows MSCI classification when available and includes Frontier Markets. Emerging Markets currency exposure is based on currency denomination. Based on a number of factors including the location of the underlying business, Orbis may consider a security's classification to be different and manage the Funds' exposures accordingly.

Portfolio concentration and characteristics

Portfolio turnover is calculated as the lesser of total security purchases or sales in the Fund over the period, divided by the average net asset value (NAV) of the Fund. Short-term fixed income instruments and net current assets are not included. Name turnover is the percentage of stock positions that have changed in the period. Low turnover suggests a strong conviction in our investments. Active share measures how actively managed a Fund is. A measure of 0% means the Fund's investments mirror the Benchmark (and the management style could be considered passive). A measure closer to 100% means there is little or no overlap with the Benchmark and the Fund is more actively managed.

Fixed Income

Fixed Income refers to fixed income instruments issued by corporate bodies, governments and other entities, such as bonds, money market instruments and cash. Net Fixed Income is Gross Fixed Income minus bond market hedging. Except where otherwise noted, government fixed income securities are aggregated by time to maturity and issuer. TIPS are not aggregated with ordinary treasuries.

Duration is calculated using the modified duration of the fixed income instruments in the portfolio, or the effective duration in the case of fixed income instruments with embedded options and real effective duration in the case of inflation-linked bonds. Yield to Maturity ("YTM") is the average of the portfolio's fixed income instruments' YTM, weighted by their net asset value. Real YTM is used for inflation-linked bonds. The calculations are gross and exclude non-performing fixed income instruments.
